

CAPITAL DISTRICT VJJA PRESENTS ...

2011 Resource Showcase & Crab Feast

CALL FOR EXHIBITORS: PUBLIC & PRIVATE AGENCIES INVITED

THE SHOWPLACE, 3000 Mechanicsville Turnpike, Richmond • September 16, 2011, 4 pm – 9 pm

For years, the statewide and regional events of the Virginia Juvenile Justice Association have been premier events for spotlighting resources and successful research-based strategies and programs for Virginia's youth. Following that trend, the Capital District Chapter's 2011 Resource Showcase & Crab Feast promises to be an event you will not want to miss. Participants will learn about prevention and intervention resources and programs from both public and private agencies. Even better this learning opportunity will be presented against the backdrop of an informal Juvenile Justice social and crab feast.

Do not miss this opportunity to maximize your exposure, introduce new services, reach key decision makers, and meet face to face with fellow juvenile justice professionals. VJJA events typically attract advertisers and exhibitors offering products, programs, services, and resources aimed at delinquency prevention and intervention geared toward professionals who work with court-involved children. Exhibitors include government agencies, non-profits, funding entities, youth-serving organizations, institutions of higher learning, community-based & residential providers, curriculum developers, training companies, prevention publishers, drug testing companies, prevention coalitions, research groups, and prevention programs.
