VJJA 35th Fall Juvenile Justice Institute

November 2 & 3, 2011 - Glen Allen, VA

*Under Construction:
Building Our Skills To Impact Others*

Conference Theme

For years, VJJA's Fall Institute has been the premier professional development event of the year. The 35th Fall Institute, "Under Construction: Building Our Skills To Impact Others," promises to follow that tradition. Participants will hear from nationally recognized speakers in the areas of body language, effective principles & practices, and more. Download Forms at: vjja.net.

Location & Lodging

Wyndham Virginia Crossings Hotel & Conference Center, 1000 Virginia Center Parkway, Glen Allen, VA, wyndhamvirginiacrossings.com or 888.444.6553 or 804.727.1400. A limited number of rooms are available at the special conference rate $99, when making reservations prior to October 14. Indicate "VJJA Conference" by phone or grp: 11016734A on-line.

Registration

All participants must be pre-registered (no walk-ins) and must be members in good standing. Participants may become members at time of registration. If not paid for the FY12 year, dues must accompany registration. When paying by check, separate checks should be written for registration & dues. Direct questions to: conferenceplanning@vjja.net.

Rates

Single Day (membership dues already paid): $40
Single Day (+ FY12 member dues): $60
Full Conference 11/2-11/3 (dues already paid): $75
Full Conference 11/2-11/3 (+ FY12 member dues): $95

Who Attends?

The event is expected to attract human services professionals to include: juvenile justice administrators, probation and parole officers, detention home staff, correctional officers, judges, defense attorneys, prosecutors, law enforcement, child advocates, counselors, mentors, CSA Coordinators, social workers, program directors, educators & more.

Exhibits

Participants will have the opportunity to visit with more than 40 Exhibitors. Expected exhibitors include: state and local government agencies, non-profit organizations, youth-serving organizations, institutions of higher learning, community-based treatment providers, group homes, treatment centers, curriculum developers, training companies and more.

Networking

In addition to formal learning, participants will be afforded multiple opportunities for relationship-building with other professionals working with court-involved children from across the state. VJJA President Beth Stinnett and past presidents will host the President's Reception and judge a "cake off" in celebration of VJJA's 45th Birthday. Finally, the fun will continue at the annual dance social.

About the Conference Sponsor

Celebrating 45 Years: Founded in 1966, the Virginia Juvenile Justice Association is an organization of more than 1000 professionals representing court services, the judiciary, detention homes, correctional facilities, group homes, indigent defense, social services, education, law enforcement and other groups with an interest in system-involved youth. The organization is administered by an elected board and is committed to continually elevating the quality of practice in the juvenile justice field and advancing the professional interests and competencies of its members.
